Quantum Supremiority?!

Google (October 23, 2019):

- Our quantum device did a computation that would take a regular computer 10,000 yrs
- Claimed “quantum supremacy:” the point where quantum computers can do things that classical computers can’t. [term coined by John Preskill]

Quantum Supremiority?!

IBM

- We simulated in 2.5 days, so no quantum supremacy.
- Stop saying “quantum supremacy”

 - “Exacerbates the already overhyped reporting on the status of quantum technology” [John Preskill]
 - “Through its association with white supremacy, evokes a repugnant political stance.” [John Preskill]
 - quantum computers will never reign “supreme” over classical computers, but will rather work in concert with them [IBM]
